The Stars' Favorite Spot to Chill in Chile

When you really want to get away from it all, take a page out of Kesha's book and head to Puerto Bories, Chile, for a rustic retreat at the Singular Patagonia. The resort, which encourages visitors to pack "trekking pants and comfortable walking shoes," sits on 30 acres of land and offers up the Fjord of Last Hope Sound and the Andes Mountains as a breathtaking panorama from its 57 rooms and suites.
