

NEW YORK WEDDINGS

Killer Views

A rooftop farm high above the East River, a lighthouse on the Long Island Sound, a barn amid the rolling Catskills, and other spots with sprawling vistas.

By Katie Kiefner Published Summer 2014

Buttermilk Falls Inn & Spa
(Photo: Sarah Tew Photography)

Buttermilk Falls Inn & Spa

The View: The Hudson River and waterfalls

In addition to the lush grounds and front-and-center Hudson River views, one of the main draws at this inn is farm-to-table restaurant Henry's at the Farm, helmed by executive chef Tom Muff, who handles all on-site catering. Weddings for more than 80 require a weekend buyout of the property (from $20,000), with accommodations for up to 54 guests in ten rooms, three cottages, and four guesthouses. Overlooking the river, the open-layout living room of River Knoll (the largest guesthouse) is a welcoming spot for a rehearsal dinner. A stone-paved hill adjacent to the inn serves as a prime waterfront spot for both ceremony and reception. An average 250-person wedding costs $60,000. 220 North Rd., Milton, N.Y.; 845-795-1310; buttermilkfallsinn.com.