> SINGULAR SENSATION

It's fitting that The Singular Santiago is located in the Chilean capital's coolest district, Lastarria—the hotel's mix of 20th century décor and neoclassical French architecture makes it a bohemian heaven. Visitors not only enjoy the well-appointed rooms and suites, rooftop bar and pool (sip or swim among the city skyline), and the beautiful Parque Forestal (garden terrace), but there is also the infinite list of neighborhood attractions, including museums, galleries, theaters, shops and restaurants (including the hotel resto with fare represented from the north to south). Experience Chile in style. thesingular.com/Santiago —NATASHA SWEEP
